

Please don't take my K-Love radio station away!!! That is all we listen to. Some of the songs and comments on secular radio stations are not "family friendly". I don't have to worry about what my children might hear on K-Love. We love the christian music and so do our friends. K-Love sends a good message that people need to hear. Please don't take it away!!!!